ORIGINALLY SIGNED

¹ Appointments for representation in court, administration patronage, appointment of expert witnesses and use of notary functions are also subject to mandatory publication as required by art. 2 paragraph 3 of the P.L. 4/2014.

² The definition of Private Entity regulated or funded by the Public Administration is derived from Leg. Decree. 39/2013, art. 1, paragraph 2, letter d). Thus, for the purposes of the application of Leg. Decree 33/2013, three private law entities regulated or funded by the PA have been identified: companies and other private law entities including those without legal personality, over which the public administration: 1) carries out the main regulation functions involving, through the issuing of permits or concessions, the continued exercise of oversight, auditing or certification powers, 2) has a minority stake in the capital, 3) provides funding of activities through agreements, such as public contracts, public service contracts and provision of public assets.

³ All offices (political and non-political) and all assignments, both paid and unpaid, as well as all assignments conducted by freelance professionals whose costs are charged to the Public Administration, must be published.

⁴ Professional activities are defined as those work activities which are carried out in an independent, organized, systematic and continued fashion. The above mentioned definition thus exclude activities carried out as an employee of other organizations.
